our GRADUATES

From SUNY to West Point, our graduates have been accepted to colleges and universities both in New York and throughout the country. Graduates have also discerned their calling to the priesthood, religious life and missionary work.

“I would strongly encourage parents to send their kids here. They’re going to get a top-notch education, great friendships, and they’re going to grow spiritually. Give them a trial of one year and I can pretty much guarantee they won’t want to leave.”
